

UNIT 1: VIETNAM PEOPLE'S ARMY

I. INTRODUCTION

The lecture introduces general information about the Vietnam People's Army, including: history of formation and development, structure and organization; forces under the Ministry of Defense.

II. TEXT

1. History of formation and development of the Vietnam People's Army.

Under the directive of President Ho Chi Minh and the command of comrade Vo Nguyen Giap, the Viet Nam Propaganda Unit of the Liberation Army, the forerunner of the Vietnam People's Army (VPA), was founded on the basis of revolutionary armed teams in Viet Bac on 22 December 1944 in Nguyen Binh district, Cao Bang province.

Nowadays, the Vietnam People's Army has been built as an Army for combat, active work and production as well as a regular, elite, more and more modern Army to successfully perform its mission of defending the country, contributing actively and effectively to the cause of building up the country.

The Establishment Ceremony of the Viet Nam Propaganda Unit of Liberation Army (22 December 1944) was held in Tran Hung Dao Forest (Nguyen Binh district, Cao Bang province).

III. GRAMMAR

 The passive voice

a) Use

- The passive voice is used when we want to emphasize the action (the verb) and the object of a sentence rather than the subject. This means that the subject is either less important than the action itself or that we don't know who or what the subject is.

Eg: The Vietnam People's Army has been built as an Army for combat, active work and production.

The Vietnam People's Army was organized, educated and led by the Vietnamese Communist Party and President Ho Chi Minh.

b) Form

- General structure:

Active	$ \begin{array}{c} \text{S + V + O} \\ \swarrow \quad \downarrow \quad \searrow \\ \text{S + be* + P.P + by + O} \\ \text{(*be must match the tense of V)} \end{array} $
Passive

- Passive form of tenses:

TENSES	ACTIVE	PASSIVE
Simple Present	S + V1-s/es	S + am / is / are + PP
Present continuous	S + am / is / are + V-ing	S + am / is / are + being + PP
